

Hw5

Build a sales reporting application for the management of a store with multiple departments. The features of the application include:

Users should be able to select a specific department they are interested in.

Upon selecting a department, two types of reports are to be displayed:

Monthly report - A list of all transactions for the current month for the selected department.

YTD sales chart - A chart showing the year-to-date sales for the selected department by month.

